

Movement IHL

1965 Proclamation of the Fundamental Principles of the Red Cross: humanity, impartiality, neutrality, independence, voluntary service, unity, universality (incorporated in 1986 into the Statutes of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement)

1972 Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production and Stockpiling of Bacteriological (Biological) and Toxin Weapons and on their Destruction

1976 Convention on the Prohibition of Military or Any Other Hostile Use of Environmental Modification Techniques (ENMOD)

1977 Protocols additional to the 1949 Geneva Conventions

- Protocol I: Protection of Victims of International Armed Conflicts
- Protocol II: Protection of Victims of Non-International Armed Conflicts

1980 Convention on Prohibitions and Restrictions of Certain Conventional Weapons

- Amended Article 1 (2001)
- Protocol I (1980) on Non-Detectable Fragments
- Protocol II (1980) on Mines, Booby-Traps and Other Devices
- Amended Protocol II (1996) on Mines, Booby-Traps and Other Devices
- Protocol III (1980) on Incendiary Weapons
- Protocol IV (1995) on Blinding Laser Weapons
- Protocol V (2003) on Explosive Remnants of War
